

One Community. United. In Jesus' Name.

We are almost there

As of this morning we are a mere $12,497 away from meeting all of our budgeted expenses for 2014. This achievement is the direct result of many of our fellow Parishioners reassessing their current giving standards, and sending in an adjusted 2014 Proportional Pledge or Tithe. Thank you.

You can still make a difference

To those of you who are still reexamining your current financial annual commitment to Trinity Hamburg, would you please determine your proportional increase and send in your new or revised 2014 Pledges?

Our new standard for giving in 2015

Together we can sustain our shared responsibility to not only meet and exceed our 2014 operating budget, but set a new standard for our giving as a spiritual discipline in 2015 and beyond.

Trinity Community News and Notes

9:00am Joint Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall brings us together for fellowship each Sunday between our 8:00 and 10:00am Services. Thank you to Rich & Judee Emerling, Marianne McGrath, & Judy Kremers today’s hospitality hosts. We extend a warm invitation to our visitors and new members to join us each Sunday in the Parish Hall for shared coffee and conversation.

2014 Confirmation and Enquirer’s Classes for those seeking Confirmation, Reaffirmation or Reception from Bishop +Franklin during his Apostolic Visitation on September 7th 2014 at the 10:00am Mass. This six-week series, designed for those preparing for Confirmation, is also well-suited to those Parishioners wanting to learn more about the Episcopal Church, the Book of Common Prayer and our place in the Anglican Communion.

Classes begin on Sunday July 20th at 9:15am in the Library, and run for six weeks through August 24th 2014. For further information, please speak to Brother Blane Frederik. To enroll for these classes, please contact Sandy Gawron, Parish Administrator at the number listed on the back of this Bulletin.

Trinity’s 5th Annual Chiavetta’s Chicken BBQ – Join us on Saturday, July 12th from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. Dine in the shade of the Picnic Shelter, or take advantage of this year’s Drive-thru take out option. Purchase your tickets ($9 pre-sale and $10 on the day), from Tricia O’Connell during the joint 9:00 coffee hour, or the Parish Office.

You can help make this fund-raiser a success by:

- 1. Increasing pre-sale tickets . Would each family please take a few tickets to sell to friends and family? Please return money and unsold tickets by July 6th.
- 2. Helping on the day of the event by simply assembling dinners. Please sign up in the Parish Hall.

All proceeds will benefit Trinity Episcopal Church and go directly towards our 2014 deficit budget.

Home Communion

This morning Dolly Westcott will be taking communion to Irene Spencer & Isobelle Jeffery who are absent from this Feast.

+We who are many are one Body, for we all share in the one Bread+

Order of Worship Choral Holy Eucharist Rite II The Third Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday, June 29, 2014

10:00 am

Welcome to your spiritual home

Whatever your religious background and however you have come to be here, we welcome you to the Trinity Community. We hope that you will feel spiritually fulfilled and strengthened to meet the challenges of your daily life. And we hope these notes about our worship will be helpful to you.

Gluten intolerant? We have gluten-free wafers available. Please make your request as you receive Communion.

Trinity's Red Doors – Safety and Refuge

Trinity Episcopal Church's doors, painted a brilliant red, following ancient tradition, signify our Sanctuary as a place of safety and refuge. Red doors lead to the holy ground within them, protecting people from both physical and spiritual harm.

Today many Episcopal churches proclaim with their red doors that our churches are a haven for emotional and spiritual healing, and are a place of refuge and safety, forgiveness and reconciliation -- in other words, red doors invite the passers-by into a space filled with the Holy Spirit.

May Trinity be for you such a place.

The Beling Memorial Bell calls us to worship at five minutes of the hour.

Trinity's Red Doors

Safety & Refuge

Trinity Episcopal Church's doors, painted a brilliant red, follow the tradition that red doors in the early days of the church signified a place of safety and refuge. For example, a soldier could not pursue an enemy who had entered through the red doors of a church. Red doors told of holy ground behind them, protecting people from both physical and spiritual harm.

Today many Episcopal churches proclaim with their red doors that our churches are a haven for those seeking emotional and spiritual healing, a place of refuge and safety, forgiveness and reconciliation. In other words, Trinity's red doors invite the passers-by into a space filled with the Holy Spirit.

May Trinity Hamburg be for you such a place.

Receiving Communion at Trinity

Jesus is truly present in the Bread & Wine

Episcopalians believe that the Real Presence of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ is received in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. At the time of Communion the appropriate response following the prayer is "Amen".

All are Welcome at our Table

No one is ineligible or unwelcome from receiving Communion

There is no one who is ineligible or unwelcome from receiving Communion at Trinity's Table. Adults and children are - without exception - warmly invited to receive Communion with the Trinity Community. We extend a special welcome to our Roman Catholic Sisters and Brothers.

Join us for coffee & fellowship following today's Mass

Each Sunday we gather in the Parish Hall for coffee and conversation directly following this morning's Mass in the Park.
