Trinity News and Notes

Coffee ☞ Conversation – We extend a warm invitation to our Parishioners, visitors and new members to join us at 10:00am in the Parish Hall for shared coffee and conversation. Thank you to Wendy Benzin, Sue Hannel, Judy Johnson today’s hospitality hosts.

Trinity Event – Everyone is invited to attend a Pot Luck Dinner and Sing-a-long on Saturday, Nov. 2 at 5:30 p.m. There is a sign up sheet in the parish hall.

All Saints Flowers – The tradition we have at Trinity is to place white chrysanthemums, symbolic of peace and tranquility, throughout the church. Donations for flowers, in any amount, in an envelope marked “Altar Guild” may be placed in the collection plate by Sunday, Oct. 27th. Please indicate the names of loved ones you wish to have remembered. Names will be included in the bulletin on Nov. 3rd.

Halloween Party – Trinity is hosting a neighborhood Halloween Party and Costume Contest with games and prizes on Sunday, October 27th at 5:30 p.m. The theme for the costume contest is “Be A Hero”. There will be refreshments and games.

Forward Day by Day books for November – January are available on the table in the parish hall. Please help yourself.

Stewardship – If you have not done so, please mail your pledge card to the church office or place it in the offering plate. Pledging your support is vital to the preparation of our budget for next year.

Email – If you are not receiving parish wide emails and would like to, please send your name and email address to admin@trinityhamburg.org and your name will be added to the list. Also, please notify the office if you have changed your email address.

St. David’s in West Seneca is having their annual Election Day Clam Chowder Luncheon and Sale on Tuesday, Nov. 5 from 11 am – 1:30 pm. The cost is $8 per person.

Order of Worship Holy Eucharist Rite II

Proper 25

Sunday, October 27, 2019

9:00 am

Welcome to your spiritual home

You are welcome among us

Whatever your religious background and however you have come to be here, we welcome you to the Trinity Community. We hope that you will feel spiritually fulfilled and strengthened to meet the challenges of your daily life.

About Communion

All are invited to receive communion with this community of God's people. At the time of communion, please come to the altar rail; you may stand or kneel. The bread will be placed in your outstretched hands; the proper response is "Amen". When the chalice of wine comes, you may drink from it directly or dip the bread (being careful to keep fingers from the wine), or decline it.

Gluten intolerant? We have gluten-free wafers available. Please make your request as you receive Communion.

The Beling Memorial Bell calls us to worship at five minutes of the hour.

Organ Postlude

Joel 2:23-32

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit. I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Luke 18:9-14

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."
