Trinity's Red Doors – Safety and Refuge

Hospitality, Healing and Hope

Trinity Episcopal Church's doors, painted a brilliant red following ancient tradition, signify our Sanctuary as a place of safety and refuge. Red doors lead to holy ground within them, protecting people from both physical and spiritual harm.

Today, Episcopal Churches – the Anglican expression of God's One, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church – proclaim with their red doors that they are a haven for emotional and spiritual healing, and a place of refuge and safety, forgiveness and reconciliation. In other words, Trinity's red doors invite you into a Sacred Space filled with the presence of the Holy Spirit.

The Beling Memorial Bell calls us to worship five minutes before the hour.

The People are seated for

The Organ Prelude – Prelude on Slane’ – Gordon Young

THE WORD OF GOD

At the sound of the organ, the People stand to sing

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever.

The Celebrant then prays

The Collect for Purity – BCP 355 (red book)

The People then sing

The Gloria– S-280 (blue book) or BCP 356 (red book)

The Celebrant then prays

The Collect of the Day: Proper 28, BCP 236 (red book)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All are then seated for

The Readings from the Bible

Hebrew Scriptures – Isaiah 65:17-25

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

At the sound of the Organ, the People stand to sing

Psalm 98

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new song, *
for he has done marvelous things.
- 2 With his right hand and his holy arm *
has he won for himself the victory.
- 3 The Lord has made known his victory; *
his righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.
- 4 He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, *
and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
- 5 Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands; *
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
- 6 Sing to the Lord with the harp, *
with the harp and the voice of song.
- 7 With trumpets and the sound of the horn *
shout with joy before the King, the Lord.

8 Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, *
the lands and those who dwell therein.

9 Let the rivers clap their hands, *
and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord,
when he comes to judge the earth.

10 In righteousness shall he judge the world * and the peoples with equity.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:*

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

All are then seated for a reading from the Letters to the First Christians – 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

At the sound of the Organ, all stand to sing

Hymn 482 (blue book) Lord of all hopefulness— Slane

The People turn towards the Gospeler for the proclamation of

The Holy Gospel – Luke 21:5-19

Gospeler: The +Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

People: +Glory to +you, Lord +Christ.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.” They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?” And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them. “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.” Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.”

Gospeler: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Paradise House Collection- Nov. 6- Dec. 11 - Paradise house is a family-style halfway house which opened in 1993 offering a program to help homeless women struggling with addictions get a new start on a productive life. Mothers who have lost custody of their children may bond with them through weekend visits and overnights in the house. Once again during the holiday season, Trinity will be supporting these women with much needed items. A donation box is in the parish hall. Please find it in your heart to support these women. Small gifts such as this demonstrate our love and compassion. Needed items include: personal care items, makeup, body lotions, soaps, nail & hair care, shampoo, hair conditioner, face lotions, target gift cards. If you have any questions see Leslie Kintner or Suzanne Kovic.

Learn about this man of faith and innovation on Sunday, Nov. 20th at 9:10 AM as part of the Adult Education Program. Bishop Walker devised a creative method of extending the scope of the Episcopal Church when he served as Missionary Bishop to the Dakota territory before he became the 3rd Bishop of our Diocese.
