Trinity Community News and Notes

Coffee & Conversation at Nine – We extend a warm invitation to our Parishioners, visitors and new members to join us after the 9:00am in the Parish Hall for shared coffee and conversation. Thank you to Patti Lukasiewicz, Doreen Nuessle, & Linda Banks today’s hospitality hosts.

Forward Day by Day books for November – January are available on the table in the parish hall. Please help yourself.

Trinity’s Annual Thanksgiving Project – Paper grocery bags will be available as you leave church this morning. If you are able, please take a bag and fill it with non-perishable grocery items, and return it by Nov. 18th. Bags will be distributed through Trinity’s Food Pantry or Operation Good Neighbor.

New Pictorial Directory - We are in the process of creating a new Pictorial Directory. This will be a great tool to help us all stay connected and to help Rev. Shannon get to know us. Everyone who is photographed will receive a printed and electronic version of the directory, in addition to a free 8 x 10 portrait of your directory pose. Photography will be on Friday, November 16th and Saturday, November 17th right here at our church. Please sign up for your photography session after church on Sundays, at our website trinityhamburg.org or by calling Lifetouch at 1-866-756-0281, Monday – Friday, 9 – 5. There is no cost to be photographed to be included. However, additional portraits are available for purchase if you are interested. Portraits will be back in plenty of time for Christmas. It is important that we have everyone included in the directory, so please sign up!

Christian Ed is doing a service project next month. We will be putting together Blessing Bags for pediatric chemo patients. These reusable bags will definitely bring a smile to their faces during such a trying and difficult time. These will be $10 each and will be filled with love and supplies. Would you be interested in sponsoring one or multiple bags? We will be taking orders today. There is a sheet in the coffee room. If you have any questions, please ask me.

Thank you Nikki.”

+May the Souls of the Faithful Departed, through the mercies of God, rest in peace+

Sunday November 4, 2018

9:00 am

Welcome to your spiritual home

You are welcome among us

Whatever your religious background and however you have come to be here, we welcome you to the Trinity Community. We hope that you will feel spiritually fulfilled and strengthened to meet the challenges of your daily life. And we hope these notes about our worship will be helpful to you.

About Communion

All are invited to receive communion with this community of God's people. At the time of communion, please come to the altar rail; you may stand or kneel. The bread will be placed in your outstretched hands; the proper response is "Amen". When the chalice of wine comes, you may drink from it directly or dip the bread (being careful to keep fingers from the wine), or decline it.

Gluten intolerant? We have gluten-free wafers available. Please make your request as you receive Communion.

Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive a great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Psalms 24

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.
- 2 For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
- 3 "Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? *
and who can stand in his holy place?"
- 4 "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.
- 5 They shall receive a blessing from the Lord *
and a just reward from the God of their salvation."
- 6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 "Who is this King of glory?" *
"The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle."
- 9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 "Who is he, this King of glory?"
"The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory."

Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true."

John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."
